"The Treehouse books are a perfect balance of minimal text, maximum black-and-white drawings packed with jokes, and unbelievable amounts of nonstop action, gags and exuberant, anarchic storytelling.

These books seem ideally designed to make a new reader feel—and be—successful. —The New York Times

FOR READERS AGES 6-10

Join New York Times-bestselling author Andy Griffiths and illustrator Terry Denton on a series of wild storytelling adventures! Andy and Terry live in a tree. And when we say "tree," we mean "treehouse," and when we say "treehouse," we don't mean just any old treehouse, we mean the most amazing treehouse in the world! It's filled with things like shark-infested see-through swimming pools, secret underground labs, and marshmallow machines that follow you around and automatically shoot marshmallows into your mouth whenever you're hungry. The treehouse is also where they make books together. Andy writes the words and Terry draws the pictures...or they would if it weren't for all the invading pirates, giant gorillas, out-of-control inventions, and evil vegetable attacks that keep distracting them!

“Dominguez introduces a character many readers can relate to, especially bilingual kids or English language learners who struggle with expressing themselves. An excellent, empowering addition to middle grade collections.” — Booklist

Meet Stella Diaz, a sweet Mexican-American girl who wants to make the world a better place. Sometimes her shyness gets in the way, but with the support of her friends and family, Stella finds the courage to use her voice. This wonderful middle grade series by award-winning author/illustrator Angela Dominguez is based on her own childhood. With black and white illustrations throughout, and simple Spanish vocabulary integrated into the text, these charming books are ideal for young bilingual readers.

"A must-have for early chapter book readers."
— School Library Journal

FOR READERS AGES 7-10

Bad Kitty is bad. Very bad. But she doesn't always mean to be. Whether she is trying to be a good little kitty and eat her vegetables or be a quiet little kitty and behave at a birthday party, it seems that trouble finds a way to her. Children will fall in love with Bad Kitty—and be roaring with laughter at all of her antics. Bad Kitty is a delightful romp through berserk cat behavior and the perfect introduction to chapter books for young readers.

★ “Vibrant, energetic illustrations portray athletic gods and goddesses, grotesque beasts, and frenzied battles, veering between cartoonish humor and intense drama. O’Connor’s copious research is evident and his love of all things Greek is contagious.” — School Library Journal, starred review

George O’Connor is a Greek mythology buff and a fan of classic superhero comics, and in this series of graphic novels, he’s out to remind us how much our pantheon of superheroes (Superman, Batman, X-Men, etc) owes to mankind’s original superheroes: the Greek pantheon. In Olympians, O’Connor draws from primary documents to reconstruct and retell classic Greek myths. But these stories aren’t sedate, scholarly works. They’re action-packed, fast-paced, high-drama fantasy adventures, with monsters, romance, and not a few huge explosions. O’Connor’s vibrant, kinetic art brings ancient tales to undeniable life, in a perfect fusion of superhero aesthetics and ancient Greek mythology.

“This series seems determined to offer a useful introduction to anything a curious grade-school student might wonder about. The insight behind these books is a powerful one. So much information about the world around us is actually better conveyed visually, through charts, illustrations, and sequential panels, than purely using words.” —The New York Times

FOR READERS AGES 9-13

Every volume of Science Comics offers a complete introduction to a particular topic—dinosaurs, coral reefs, the solar system, volcanoes, bats, flying machines, and more. These gorgeously illustrated graphic novels offer wildly entertaining views of their subjects. Whether you’re a fourth grader doing a natural science unit at school or a thirty-year-old with a secret passion for airplanes, these books are for you!
