

Saints of the Household Unit Plan: Lessons & Reading Schedule

This is a complete unit plan for Saints of the Household. The activities are structured so that students first participate in the class activity, then complete the assigned reading for homework (listed on the right). In the next class session, they will engage with the corresponding lesson in the following row.

Class Activity	Homework
Intro to Saints of the Household	Read pgs. 3-48 (I Jay)
Character Debrief &amp; Vignettes Vignette Creative Writing Prompt	Read pgs. 53-76 (II Max)
Character Debrief &amp; Free Verse Poetry Free verse poetry writing	Read pgs. 80-125 (III Jay, IV Max, V Jay)
Exploring Themes &amp; Real-Life Connections	Read pgs. 129-157 (VI Max, VII Jay)
Quick Chat: Reading Highlights	Read pgs. 160-187 (VIII Max, IX Jay)
Mental Health Representation in YA	Read pgs. 191-241 (X Max, XI Jay, XII Max)
Group Conversations	Read pgs. 244-272 (XIII Jay, XIV Max)
Exploring Character and Color Symbolism	Read pgs. 276-309 (XV Jay)
Book Debrief
Final essay assessment

This unit plan was developed by AnnMarie Kannon. She is a high school English teacher in the Boston area who teaches 9th & 12th grade, including a young adult literature course that challenges normative identities by exploring diverse authors, protagonists, themes, and genres.